Professional Development & Networking Luncheon

Old Town Revitalization in Lewisville

The Midwest Texas Section of APA invites to you to our professional development and networking luncheon at the Lewisville MCL Grand Theatre!

TOPIC: Situated in the heart of the city, Old Town is Lewisville’s historic core with buildings in the central business district dating back to the turn of the century. Lewisville has prioritized investment in Old Town throughout the past decade by selecting the district for its new City Hall, constructing the Medical Center of Lewisville Grand Theater, and working with the Denton County Transit Authority to create the Old Town Station. These efforts will be solidified by the completion of the Old Town Plaza; an iconic public space that connects area attractions and provides a venue for community events.

Through the use of targeted area plans and the 2025 Vision Plan currently underway, Lewisville has been proactive in planning for its future and ensuring that the Old Town district is an essential part of the city’s identity. A close partnership with the Old Town Business Association has spurred the development of city-funded incentives that help maintain the district’s historical integrity and promote a vibrant mix of uses.

Speakers include Nika Reinecke, Director of Economic Development and Planning, Jason Claunch, President of Catalyst Commercial, and Amanda Ferguson and Lindsay Holladay from the Old Town Business Association.
