B. Call to Order and Roll Call*: Kim Mickelson, JD, AICP

Chapter President Kim Mickelson opened the meeting at 10:00 am.

C. President’s Remarks: Kim Mickelson, JD, AICP

1. Welcome and Introductions

Kim welcomed all who were present. She directed those present introduce themselves and their roles.

The conference included a plethora of news including the launch of a new website. They expect to provide Chapters with How To’s on how to do their websites. Mike mentioned there is a glitch in the CM portion of the new website. Ann mentioned the Membership Directory wasn’t working properly. Kim mentioned the proposal to include Planning Advisory Service as part of regular membership and CM credits for Pro Bono work. Wendy mentioned that Texas was well represented at the conference. Ann mentioned that the Chicago and Washington offices are working very efficiently. They are looking at relaunching the philanthropic efforts of APA. They also want to work with Chapters on these efforts. Kim mentioned they have decided to go to San Diego rather than San Antonio. There is discussion concerning Chapters adopting a percentage 15-45% of National dues. We may need to consider in October. There was discussion concerning the paperless conference program. Attendees were directed to use the App and also log CM credits. Members enjoyed using the App. National reallocated funds that they would have used on printing costs towards other conference expenses. The board discussed moving towards digital program and/or App and then charging for a printed program. Five AICP members were recognized as fellows at the Arizona conference.

3. Other Items

D. Secretary’s Report: Heather Nick, AICP

1. Approval of Minutes for Oct 7, 2015 Fall Board Meeting, Galveston (Attch D-1)

The Treasurer’s Report should be updated to remove the typographic error and include the North Central Section balance which was “2,984.99”.

The Section report should reference the “I-45” realignment rather than “I-35”.

Cameron Walker moved to approve the minutes with changes. The motion was seconded by Richard Luedke and passed.

2. Approval of Minutes for Feb 5, 2016 Exec Comm Meeting, Houston (Attch D-2)

Angela Martinez moved to approve the Minutes as written. The motion was seconded by Cameron Walker and the motion passed without discussion.

E. Treasurer’s Report: Angela Martinez, AICP

1. Status of Bank Accounts for APA Texas Chapter and Sections (Attachment E-1)

Angela presented the report. She mentioned that members seeking reimbursements must fill out the approved form. She reminded Chapter and Section members that they are not allowed to perform ATM withdrawals using their purchasing cards.

Angela reported the Chapter balance is $13,085.31 with $5,76.08 in savings. The Section account balances as of 4/26/16:

April 12th disbursement was made. Two-week disbursement requests are due by May 9th. Angela will send a reminder the week before the due date. She thanked the Sections that were able to submit their requests.

Kim mentioned that there was discussion concerning a conference call with Section Directors to go over training items.

2. 2015-2016 Budget and Financial Status Report (Attachment E-2)
   Angela explained that due to pending disbursement requests that this item is not available.

3. Section Budget Requests (Attachment E-3)
   Angela explained that due to pending disbursement requests that this item is not available and no action is required at this time.

4. Preparation of 2016-17 Budget (Attachment E-4)
   Angela explained that due to pending disbursement requests that this item is not available and no action is required at this time.

F. Sections Representative’s Report: Joshua Owens, AICP (Attachment F-1)
   1. Section Directors Activities Reports
      Josh was not present to present report.
      Jeff provided an update on the Midwest section activities.
      Carol Barrett Ethics training will be held on May 5th.

      Jon provided an update on activities. Considering Planning Commissioner training.
      Cameron mentioned that they are hosting a HUD and Livability Conference.
      Kelly thanked everyone for their financial support to film the Big Six event.
      The video is posted online. Kim suggested to post to Facebook. Doug offered to post during the meeting.
      Chelsea provided an update on section activities. Donation was made to the Garland Relief Fund related to the tornado.
      Doug mentioned Jeff’s work regarding obtaining sponsorships.
2. Sections Guide – Doug McDonald, AICP
   Doug provided a brief presentation regarding the Sections Guide that outlines the minimum expectations for Sections. The Guide is available on the website. The guide needs to be updated as various items change. It is a very helpful tool. Doug mentioned the importance of quarterly reporting. Doug discussed the importance of Sections using the Chapter website.

3. Section Budget Requests - Angela Martinez, AICP
   Angela explained that due to pending disbursement requests that this item is not available and no action is required at this time.

4. Best Practices for Section Directors – Joshua, Kim, Doug and Mike
   Doug stated that they were going to conduct a Section Director training during the Awards Retreat. He mentioned that they asked all the Section Directors (or Director-Elects) to attend this training in Leakey.

   Kim stated that the Chapter is excelling in this category - even above National. Doug mentioned that Texas is setting the example. Richard stated that there is an increased interest from young planners in the AICP credential. Wendy stated that the EPL efforts are most likely contributing to the increased interest. Cameron acknowledged members that have helped revive and make this effort successful. Mike stated that he thought it would be beneficial to offer a leadership training session at the conference. Cameron stated concern about focusing leadership on the “little fifteen before they get to the Big Six”. Wendy stated that we need to offer sessions that are inspirational and “big picture”. Members discussed promoting planning, inspirational session, and political navigation. Mike mentioned an idea where senior/experienced planners provide their experiences with the younger generations. This will also allow them to share their experiences and wisdom. Kim and Mike discussed making the theme for the planning conference “Texas Planning Movement”. Mike thought the Round Table or committee could be a great opportunity to speak to planning issues. David mentioned that this could be problematic in Texas. Members may be hindered from their organizations when attempting to vocalize. Ann stated that it could be past or current directors that participate in this group. Kim stated that we should pursue the endeavor. She also stated that we should recognize importance of helping planning officials, citizens, etc. understand what good planning looks like which ties back to our mission statement.

   Action step: Consider sessions to address mentorship and leadership.

BUFFET LUNCH – Pecan Room Foyer
APA Texas will LEAD the planning movement in this state.

1. Professional Development/Certification Maintenance/AICP Exam Prep and Scholarships: Richard Luedke, AICP and Barbara Holly, AICP

   Jennifer will not be able to instruct the AICP Exam Workshop during our November conference. Richard has identified other candidates to provide the training. They are willing to waive their normal $2,000 fee in lieu of covering airfare, rental car, and Wednesday hotel stay.

   Richard provided the registration numbers from past years:

   AICP Exam Reimbursement – received seven. Richard reached out to FAICP members to sponsor the student exam fee. Members asked if those members could or would want to be recognized. The student could possibly write a letter to the sponsor.

   New sections C and D of Ethics effective April 1, 2016. They were distributed within Interact and includes a simplified process.

   Jim Peters as appointed the interim Ethics Officer.

   A major update is anticipated for the May 17th testing window.

   AICP is considering a more accelerated process to allow them to seek certification sooner.

   Barbara Holly, AICP discussed the failure to log their CM credits. 113 members received a notice concerning their potential lapse. They have extended to CM logging to the end of May. Some members expressed their frustration with trying to log hours. There was general agreement that there has been difficulties associated with logging credits. Barbara recommended that the Chapter share the frustration and issues with APA Executive Director, James Drinan.

   Kelly asked if there was an amnesty program. Richard mentioned a pilot amnesty program 2010-2012 reporting period. Kim asked Wendy if they could bring this issue to National.

   Richard mentioned our participation in the webcasts series.

   Richard stated that Trevor Dick, AICP, John Houseal, AICP, and Devin Lavigne, AICP, would be the available to instruct the Fall 2016 AICP Exam Workshop.

2. Emerging Planning Leaders Committee: Kendall Wendling, AICP (Attachment G-1)

   Doug provided the report on Kendall’s behalf. He presented the various upcoming events associated with the EPL program.
3. Mentoring Program Report: Doug McDonald, AICP (Attachment G-2)

Doug detailed how the team compiled mentoring groups. The changes they made to the program last year have made it more successful.

4. Student and Faculty Reps: Vrushali Sathaye and Shannon VanZandt, PdD, AICP

Vrushali expressed appreciation to the Chapter because of their willingness to involve students. She discussed her proposed plan to prepare for the conference. Mike mentioned that the Chapter will open registration July 1st. Kelly mentioned the Legacy Project. He asked if there was a proposed plan regarding the project and if University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) and Texas State would be involved. Michael Taylor mentioned a discussion concerning visioning boards.

5. Chapter Historian Report: Dave Gattis, FAICP

No report provided.

6. Planning Awards Program: Cameron Walker, AICP (Attachment G-3)

Cameron discussed the Awards Program. He stated that the nomination fee covers the Awards Committee retreat. If the committee is unable to have full attendance, Mike has offered to join the committee when needed.

Cameron mentioned forming a committee to discuss the present listing of awards and consider new categories. Kelly, Doug, Chance, and Ann volunteered to serve on the committee. Wendy expressed concern regarding the length of the ceremony. The board discussed minor changes to the ceremony that would help expedite the process of distributing the awards and taking photos.

Cameron recommended that the committee present their recommendations at the next Executive Meeting
