3. Nominating Committee Report – Candidates for 2013 Chapter Officer Elections
   In 2016 we’ll transition to national ballot. The nominating committee stated that the new winners will take over in October. The open positions are: president elect, treasurer, and TML rep. For any suggestions, contact Wendy as chair. Lynn Jorgenson will help us with the election at no cost.

Nominating for fellows:
Biennial – new class of AICP members who could advance to the college of fellows. Applicants must have achieved a level of excellence in planning. People can be nominated by chapter, divisions, college of fellows, or by individual petition route. The Committee determines who should be recognized.
C. Secretary’s Report – Barbara Holly, AICP (See Attachments C-1 and C-2)

1. Approval of Minutes for October 3, 2012 Board Meeting (Fort Worth) and January 25, 2013 Executive Committee Meeting (conference call) (Action Item)
   Wendy motioned, Chance seconded, minutes approved unanimously.

D. Treasurer’s Report – Lindsay Guindi, AICP (Attachment D)

1. 2012-2013 Chapter Budget Status Report
   Mike and Lindsey discussed the draft budget. Each accredited university will get $500. These are: Texas Southern; UTA; UT Austin; Texas A&M and Texas State University. The budget is currently out of balance and must be balanced. Dave will need an additional $1,000 to fund an intern. Discussion on allocating $1,000 assistance to other orgs to go to Dave. Motion by Barbara, second by Wendy to move the monies to historian. Motion carries unanimously to move $1,000 from other organization funding to historian.

2. Status of Chapter Bank Accounts
   Lindsey reminded all members that travel is by chapter only.

3. Status of Section Disbursements

4. Proposed 2013-2014 Chapter Budget (Action Item)
   Discussion on Midwest fund balance which is starting at $10,079. By year’s end, it will be down to $10,004 for a loss of $75. Wendy suggested that Midwest drop their request to $2,000 from $3,900, freeing up $1,900. Karla agreed. Brooks moved to accept the budget with $1,900 less Midwest and $5,538 to be made up in increased revenue and reduced expenses from conference. Richard seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

E. Action Plan Progress Reports -- Reports by members on progress and goals. The Action Plan includes the following five categories:

1. Chapter Conferences – David Hoover, AICP (Attachment E-1)
   2013 Galveston
   2014 Frisco
   2015 Central Texas (To Be Determined)

   Rotation Schedule and Selection Procedure for Future Conferences
   Mike presented David’s report. The call for sessions went out. Over 70 sessions proposed. The theme is “waves of change”. The hotel and conference center are arranged. The main hotel is the San Louis hotel. The evening social will be pool side. Thursday will be on the pleasure pier; Friday is not known right now. The preliminary program will be available in June with the final program ready in July. Frisco will be the 2014 locations. Brooks let us know that we’ll be at the Embassy Suites, by the Frisco Conference Center, and the theme will be “Big D and Beyond”
2. Professional Development/CM process: Richard Luedke, AICP and Abra Nusser, AICP (Attachment E-2)
   AICP Exam Preparation Workshop
   Certification Maintenance
   Richard discussed his written report. There will be a new AICP test launch in Nov 2013. Also, there has been discussion of launching a certification maintenance audit which was not well received in Professional Development Officer meeting. If an audit goes badly, the member will have to go on a Performance Improvement Plan.

3. Communications and Outreach – Heather Nick (Attachment E-3)
   Website and Campaign Messaging
   Reviewed Heathers written report. She suggested we look at mind mixer and virtual town halls, but to keep in mind that it all costs money

4. Legislative Activity -- John Lettelleir, AICP and Craig Farmer, FAICP (Attachment E-4)
   Chapter Legislative Engagement Program for 83rd Texas Legislative Session
   Reviewed John’s written report. He let us know that there is difficulty getting people to testify. He said that we need someone to fill his shoes. Chance said he’s up for it.

5. Partnerships: Renae’ Ollie and Veronica Soto, AICP (Attachment E-5)

   1. Awards Nomination Process and Schedule.
      The suggested changes to the fee and converting to digital submittals were accepted.

   Mike reviewed his report. The planning excellence work is due the end of July.
